CRICKET.

The event of the summer has been the erection of the Pavilion. For it the club has many friends to thank. Mrs. Palmes gave the first hope last year when she offered a donation of £5. Then a couple of months ago Lady Dunsany made a most generous gift of the main timbers and other material—it was this that placed the building of the Pavilion within the club's means. Other ladies and gentlemen helped, and the amount of their gifts will appear in the cricket accounts for the year. The important fact is that the Pavilion is in its place, and that its appearance reflects great credit on those who designed and built it.

We are sometimes asked, what use it is. It has two main purposes. It is a place where bats, nets and other cricketing implements can be kept. Secondly, it is a dressing-room and place of shelter in case of rain. Visiting teams often want to change their clothes before and after the game. We have known this accomplished behind a hedge, or under the shelter of a hurdle, but the process is neither comfortable nor entirely decent. Curiously enough on the first Saturday that the Pavilion was put into use every member of the opposing eleven came in ordinary clothes and changed into flannels for the game.

For some reason or other the club cannot manage to win many of its matches. The games are very friendly and pleasant, and so the main object of playing cricket is gained. We get our opponents out for very few runs as a rule, but more times than not we fail to score as many ourselves. Cricket is known as a game of "glorious uncertainty," in that lies its charm. Let us hope that in the return matches the luck will change.

There will be matches at Bere Regis on August 3rd, 8th, 15th, 29th, and on September 5th and 12th. On these days the ground is open, in spite of the notices, to all who care to watch the play.

TO THE PARISHIONERS OF WINTERBOURNE KINGSTON.

Dear Friends,

As I may not be able to pay a farewell visit to everyone in the parish after my short stay amongst you, I avail myself of this opportunity to say good-bye. I have explained in the course of conversation the reasons why I could not see my way to a permanent stay in the parish, and I think you will all probably agree with me as to the difficulty. I wish, however, to say now how much I regret leaving. I have received nothing but the greatest kindness and consideration from everyone in the village, and I shall go away with the pleasantest recollection of the time I have spent here. I confess that I am inclined to envy my successor. But all the same, I hope you will give him the same genial welcome which you gave me.

Yours most faithfully,

C. A. HAILEY.

JAMES JANES, Churchwarden.

In publishing the above account I wish on behalf of the Parishioners to thank the generous subscribers for their timely help. The re-leading has been satisfactorily carried out, and no damp has touched the figures in the roof during the past winter. The Treasurer of the Fund (Captain G. L. Palmes) having left the parish, I am unable to ask him to go through the final accounts with me. Some portion of the balance will (with the permission of those subscribers whose contribution came in after the actual sum needed was in hand) be used towards new oak panelling in the chancel, but the greater part will be held in case of further repairs being needed to any other part of the roof.

MONTAGUE A. BERE, Vicar.
